At New York Saturday money on call was steady at 21/2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 5@5% per cent. Sterling exchange was steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.84% for demand and $4.81%@4.81% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.82@4.82% and $4.86@4.86%; commercial bills, $4.8016@4.81.

London market sold at 29%d an ounce. The exports of gold and silver from the port of New York to all countries for the week aggregated $1,140,039 in silver bars and coin and $12,000 were valued at $10,327,529.

does not mean, necessarily, a stringency market. It emphasizes the fact that rise in rates will lead to renewed talk of imports, but nobody regards the occasion perious enough to call for shipments of special to this side, although if a small profit can be shown the current may turn this way again. The most curious phase of the situation, retrospec-tively, is what would have happened had it not been for the greatly enlarged volume of national bank currency within the year.

ttention centered on the bank statement on statement appeared. The larger speculators who have been builling the market during the the showing by the banks seems surprising when it is considered that great stress has been laid by the speculators for the rise on the offsets to the interior drain of currency, which were expected to mitigate the cash loss. Even Friday, when the movement to the interior was own to have been large, the maximum estimate of the decline in cash did not reach 6,000,000. The large payment of Pacific gold frafts last week was expected to moderate that lowing, under the system of computations by ally averages, but, instead of that, the loss cash for the week was run up to $8,574,700, remaining surplus of the banks is cut The interior demand for cash has been larger than any previous week of the season and far in excess of any single week in the fal eason of last year. The extraordinary cotto is undoubtedly responsible for the The equanimity of speculators, in bank statement, must be due to the ion that the heavy movement of cotton seaboard insures a continuance of the With the strain on the New York money market to harden interest rates, it is argued that the continued foreign buying of cotton is likely to necessitate shipments of gold to this country, probably the coming week. On the other hand, London must meet an installon the khaki loan subscription the coming

The buil party is evidently playing also to attract an outside buying movement of the class which nothing but a rapid advance in prices brings into the stock market. The effort has not proved entirely successful, but the new buying was hardly sufficient to absorb the profittaking by professionals, who sought to reduce e most of by the bull leaders, but the leaders are of confidence in the ul

BY MANIPULATION. evident from the number of assertions put in circulation on the Stock Exchange which failed the coal strike had been called off served its and there were various rumors of absorptions and consolidations of railroad systems, while brokers vigorously bid up the stocks concerned with a palpable disinclination to avail themselves of lower prices to absorb the stocks. But it was notable that the advance thus secured lid not bring out any beavy offerings from other than speculative holders, and price reactions were not severe even when the unveracious

The hopeful views expressed by authorities in the iron and steel trade had a marked influence on the much depressed stocks in that group, and ted the general list favorably by sympathy. he adjustment of the long-drawn-out wage controversy with tin-plate workers gave relief to fears of labor troubles, and the expressed satisnefft by carriage of steel rails, with the price fixed by the makers, promised a line of orders in that industry. The declaration of the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, on Tennessee Coal ended a very bold bear campaign against the stock based on positive assertions, widely shed, that the dividend would be reduced passed. The subsequent rebound in the stock a revivifying influence on all the stocks in some recent orders for liquidation of various stocks was a relief to the market, and facilitated the advance. The point probably most relied on by the bulls was the promise of early imports of gold, carried in the marked downward course of exchange under the continued flood of bills against heavy exports of cotton, and the apparent acquiescence of European money markets in the threatened movement of gold by retraining rom advancing their discount rates. The reten tion of the Bank of England official rate at cent., with the market rate fully up to that. nt to confirm this conviction. This action, in face of the drastic inroads on banking reources, to meet the October quarterly settlements, revealed by the weekly statements of the Bank of England and the Imperial Bank of Germany, created the impression that the October settlements having been safely met, the foreign money markets did not feel constrained to conserve their resources so strictly. Exchange and argued that the need for remittance on sub ns to foreign loans, to which the Swedish subscriptions have been added during the week, would arrest the downward course of ex-change this side of the gold-import point. The moderated reduction of the banks' surplus by reason of loan contraction, revealed by last week's bank statement and the hope of a fa-vorable showing this week by reason of the f speculative holders of securities, and mean time the call loan rate has advanced to 3 per cent., and money rates continue to harden. There has been only a slight increase in bon't business, and prices have moved irregularly. United States new fours declined 1/2 per cent. on call since last Saturday.

Patriotic Duty.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: Looking back over the past 125 years of American political history, four characters tower above all the rest like four lofty mountain peaks above the plains-the four great Presidents that bore the shock of war and the attacks of unpatriotic Americans at home. This quartet of Presidents that towers over the twilight tops of time is the immortal Washington, father and founder of the Republic; the martyred but glorified Lincoln, whose patient genius and statesmanship marks the epoch of emancipation; 6.15c; crushed, 6.15c; powdered, 6.85c; granuthe silent, invincible, never-flinching, neverdoubting Grant, whose battle line touched Turkeys, hens, 7c per lb; toms, 5c; hens, 7c; doubting Grant, whose battle line touched cocks, 4c; ducks, full feathered, 5c; geese, full the horizon of immortality; and last, he feathered, $4.80 per doz; young chickens, 7c who for more than a year held back the who, for more than a year, held back the radicals that sought war with Spain, till war could not be longer avoided, then with preparations that only a master mind could conceive in so short a time, struck the listen to the reverberation of failing Spain. posed, maligned, abused and vilified some of these great Presidents, but the people stood by them, and did honor to themselves and glorified their country in doing so. Our great McKiniey is attacked by the same class that burnt blue-lights in Washington's day, the same class that called Lincoln and Grant every cruel name, but elections silenced their hate. Now the Republic has another chance to sustain great patriotic President, and after the election no one will doubt its loyalty to America, the President, and the soldier boys in the far-away Philippines.

Other Futures Decline-A Quiet Day in the Cereal Pits, with the Changes Small and Mixed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6 .- Wheat to-day closed a shade lower, corn a shade higher, oats unchanged and provisions 5@12%c lower. October pork advanced $2.50.

Wheat was helped by an advance at Liverpool. With Liverpool %@1%d higher, despite the fact that this market the previous session had furnished no motive for such a bulge, November wheat opened %@%c higher at 78@78%c. The Liverpool gain was said to be based on a report of a frost in Argentina. In the Northwest there were light but general rains. The first hour the market was moderately active, but later was dull and neglected. Traders evened up for the Sunday cessation of business. Lack of outside bull support resulted in a decline of November to 77%@77%c. The market steadled at $1.27. because of a fair cash business-200,000 bu-and November closed a shade down at 77%@77%c. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour were equal to 263,000 bu. Primary receipts were 797,000 bu, compared with 958,000 last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 573 cars, against 406 last week and 730 a year ago. Local receipts were 207 cars, 4 of contract grade.

In the corn market there was a fair general trade early, but later the market fell into neglect. The market opened higher in sympathy with wheat and on moderate country offerings. The local crowd sold to even up over Sunday, but as there was fair outside support the close was steady. November sold between 37%@37%c and closed a shade up at 37%@37%c. Receipts were 374 cars.

Oats had their usual contracted experience Local receipts were 374 cars. Receipts 367,000 bu at all points. November sold between 22%c and 2214@22%c, and closed unchanged at 2214@22%c. UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 6.-Cattle-Receipts, 300; shipments small. The receipts of cattle were larger than usual at this time in the week, but consisted principally of grass-fed Texas steers of just medium quality. They were a little hard to sell, but finally were taken by local killers at about former prices. Other sales included 1,120-lb native steers at $4.80. The receipts this week were 1,700 smaller than last week, 500 smaller than the same week a year ago, and the receipts so far this year are 1,000 larger than the same period last year. Notwithstanding the decrease in the marketing the supplies have been as good as expected and salesmen have had a better opportunity to distose of the stale cattle. They took advantage of the situation, and at the close of the week very few cattle remained in the pens unsold. During the week export steers suffered a further decline of 10c in price, but the best cows and heifers did not show any quotable change, and prices of other grades continue at the low level that they have sold at for several days. There were no strictly choice export steers represented during the week, but quite a number sold as high as $5.30, heifers as high as $4.75, and cows as high as $4.40. Quotations:

A Political Juggler.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

dricks county, in an address delivered there on the morning of Oct. 6: "The Porto Rican (4.00) bill does for the people of that island exactly what England did for the colonies, and against which they rebelled and found liberty." Mr. Bryan must have presumed 1.000 2.75 that the people whom he thus addressed 5.000 6.75 were stupid and illiterate. Superintendent 3.75/g 4.00 Charlton would certainly have been fully 3.40/g 3.65 justified in extending him an invitation to justified in extending him an invitation to Hogs-Receipts, 3,600; shipments, 700. The hog J. Bryan to deal out a little reasonable onies for the support of the English govwhich is largely collected from the products sugar and coffee, but instead of using it to support our own government it is paid back to the people of Porto Rico for their benefit by the rich sugar and tobacco dealers, or person more than another, or a favored few, but each and every person on the island derives a benefit of some kind from this revenue in one way or another, the rich and poor alike, as the revenue is used to improve the island in many, many ways, sands and in various other ways too numerous to mention. If Mr. Bryan continues to juggle such misleading statements in such a careless manner he will have to be classed with the smooth confidence man, who, extending his hand, greets you as an old acquaintance. while he pats you on the back with the other and makes you think he is "cheese" and you are "it." You become struck with his familiarity, but more particularly his nerve; he notices your hesitancy, and probably taking it for granted that you think he does know you-and maybe he does-he takes advantage of the spell he has thus thrown you into, but by such a marvelous display of his unequalec nerve proceeds to convince you that you have at last found the key to happiness ar success by selling you a "gold brick," and at the same time taking all the money you have on your person with the other not satisfied with talking you into the "gold brick" business, he wants to put you into hard straits for listening to him. It may sound hard to make this comparison, think it over and gradually the light will dawn upon you that both cases bear favorable comparison, and you will find yourself in a short while asking this question: "Can we not put the question to ourselves candidly, individually, is Mr. Bryan a safe man to be chief executive of this great Nation when he deals out such unscrupulous HENDRICKS COUNTY FARMER.

Attitude of Friends.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: The Indianapolis Sentinel has repeatedly claimed that Indiana is safe for Bryan. because the Quakers are going to vote for him, because of McKinley's war policy; and within a few days, Mr. Curtis, of the Chicago Record, usually a fair and reliable correspondent, said something very similar, and puts Indiana into the doubtful column because of this, and because it is claimed by the Democrats that all the Gold Democrats, "except a few bankers, are for Bryan. If the gentlemen who claim Indiana for Bryan have no better ground for making the claim than these two classes furnish them here in Macounty, a great, heart-breaking disappo ment awaits them. The numbers and the enthusiasm of the Gold Democrats at Mr. Irish's meeting in Anderson, last Saturday night, was a revelation and a joyful surprise to the Republicans, and a corresponding frost for the silver people.

mixed brought $5.20@5.30, and best heavy $5.35@ But I took up my pen to speak of the Juaker calumny. Induga a no church, my veins are more than half full of Quaker blood, and my indignation rises as I read the false charges. The Quakers are very much like other people regarding war. General Sherman said:
"War is hell." All thinking people see its evils. Even the Czar of Russia wishes it might cease. But nobody knows better than the peaceful followers of Fox and Barclay that war is sometimes unavoidable. Peace is sweet, but the policeman who takes his life in his hand and throttles a midnight burglar is making war, in fact, precisely the same war as our noble boys are now making in Luzon. It is the enforcement of authority. The township in which Pendleton is situated has be known since 1834 as the Quaker township. It is a very creditable part of the township's history that it never gave a Democratic majority. It voted for Clay against Jackson in 1832, and for Harrison in 1836. An extensive acquaintance here. among Friends and friendly people, enables me to speak with certainty as to the political position of Friends here this year. Among all the Friends in this and adjoining townships, five will vote for Bryan. These have long been "off" on the money and kindred questions, and are for him on that account. They voted for him in 1896, in company with a number of the same people who are now enthusiastic McKinley men. This Quaker township was almost the only one in this county that filled all quotas in the war without a draft, and a hundred Quaker boys, or those in whose veins ran Quaker blood, were in the ranks. I do not for a moment doubt that the same state of things as to the position of Friends prevails in all other parts of our noble State. I have thought this matter sufficiently important to be treated in the Journa and I have felt it a duty to repel a foul calumny on a brave, patriotic and enlight-J. B. LEWIS. ened people.

> Pendleton, Ind., Oct. 6. Hockman to Sims.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: As to the statement of Fred A. Sime in the Journal of Oct. 5, in which he walls over my action, I wish to say it must relieve his spleen to unload so much venom at one time. "Freddie" and Charles Landis are certainly taking me too seriously. A "disgruntled office-seeker" (all alone) could hardly influence Mark Hanna. Postmaster General Smith, Governor Roosevelt, Cannon, Dalzell, Governor Mount and Pat O'Donnell and others to come into the Ninth district and make special pleas for Landis. As for me passing myself off as Mr. Dunbar at Crawfordsville, it is not true. At Tipton I registered as "M. H. Cummings" and, with other Anti-Landis Republicans, I feel sure he will know more after the votes are counted. If Mr. Sims chooses that I shall prefer certain charges of his disloyalty to Landis and that he is driven to desperation, and after the shedding of tears for his present un-enviable, ungrateful adoration and devotion to Landis I can do so.

This especial moment, except to show that ority of the banks in the clearing house have undergone no serious drain on their re-sources, although quite a number are new close to the legal reserve point and some of them it. The present statement would not have stationary loan column. While there is nothing to warrant the assertion, it appears as though there had been a period of active borrowing during the week, not previously known. At any rate, the general tendency of the banks just is to contract loans, and the small decrease the week compares oddly with the decrease

Week in Which Trade Was Disappointing, but with Strong Prices. Wholesale merchants were somewhat disappointed with the volume of business in the week closed Oct. 6. Low rates, on account of the Bryan meeting, prevailed three days of the week, and, aside from unusually warm weather for October, there were reasons for expecting a trisk trade. Commission row shared with the was one of the poorest weeks in the last three $2.50@2.75. No. 3, $2.75@3; No. 5, $3.25@3.50. months. During the week the principal break in prices was in sugar. Linseed oils also dropped another cent. In dry goods several advances were established, and the provision market is stronger at the slight advance made during the week. The produce market ruled steady. Fresh eggs and good butter are in active request. The leather and hide markets are still dull and prices easy in tone. The iron and steel markets are more active, with prices unchanged. Druggists are having a good business The local grain market was fairly active all the week, fluctuations in prices on the track not varying more than one cent, the decline of one day followed by an advance the next day.
